

Chinoiserie decoration

A popular trend of decoration, especially painted, in the 18th century furniture is the evocation of Chinese motif and techniques: Chinoiserie. Coming from "Chinois", french word for chinese, it's the western interpretation of Asian design, reflecting a fascination for its aesthetics and artistic traditions. Main subjects featured are idyllic images of daily life, mountain and lakesides scenarios, pagodas and beautiful birds and animals. Our skillful craftsmen have declined the chinoiserie decoration into different techniques, from gold leaf painting to reversed painted glass and ceramic tops.
