CONTRACT BESPOKE PROJECTS

SALDA Arredamenti: Italian sartorial atelier est. 1870

Exclusive aesthetic, technical mastery, stylistic research, precious materials, from the finest woods to refined fabrics, exclusive craftsmanship and details create a timeless collection, in fine balance between the memory of the past and a strong connection to the present day.

Salda secret lies in the passion for quality and the manufacturing expertise of the Besana family, a heritage to be preserved, shared and enriched over time with inventiveness and elegance.

Its uniqueness lies in the ability to reinterpret and customise tradition with great skill, creating furniture with a unique flavour strictly Made in Italy, a land of quality and creativity, the cradle of fine craftsmen with utmost attention to detail.

The value of three centuries of technical knowledge and absolute elegance at your service.

A skillful combination of techniques, eras and differing styles define unique furniture able to enrich exclusive hotels and residences all over the world.

The customisation is total, starting from the design to exclusive finishes, each piece can be developed to meet the specific needs of architects, interior designers, developers.

Salda bespoke collections fit into diverse environments, far from each other in terms of aesthetics, influences and stylistic features, affirming the lasting relevance of the classic style.

Salda is able to create exclusive bespoke solutions, working side by side with buyers and the most prestigious architecture and interior design firms, matching all aesthetic, technical and budget requirements.

The value of a unique heritage

Another distinctive trait is represented by the historical archive containing the original drawings that the Besana family preserves with great care.

A precious source of inspiration, a collection of inestimable value ideal for different styles and tastes to draw inspiration from both for the reproduction of antique furniture as for the creation of exclusive bespoke pieces.

A unique heritage in the furnishing and decoration world which has helped to define Salda's eclectic identity for more than three centuries.

Bespoke creations around the World

SALDA unique creations brings italian style and the warmth and elegance of wood to life in the most tasteful residences and the best hotels.
